

Parent Code of Conduct

Originally released: 2017
Due for review: 2019

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Code of Conduct (the Code) is to describe minimum standards of conduct in all behaviour and decision making to ensure the safety and well-being of students.

APPLICATION

The Code applies to staff, students, parents and guardians, volunteers and tutors as applicable. The term 'parents' includes guardians.

INTRODUCTION

You recognise that the safety and well-being of students depends upon your vigilance and diligence and the vigilance and diligence of all adults.

Breaches of the Code must be notified to the Principal and it is a breach of the Code not to do so.

In the case of a breach of the Code, the Principal may take such action as is appropriate in your circumstances to maintain the safety and well-being of students.

CONDUCT STATEMENTS

1. I act safely and competently.
2. I give priority to students' safety and well-being in all my behaviour and decision making.
3. I act in accordance with the values of the Gospel as defined in the Code of Ethical Conduct.
4. I conduct myself in accordance with laws, agreements, policies and standards relevant to my relationship with the school community.
5. I respect the dignity, culture, values and beliefs of each member of the school community.
6. I treat personal information about members of the school community as private and confidential.
7. I give impartial, honest and accurate information about the education, safety and well-being of students.
8. I support all members of the school community in making informed decisions about students.
9. I promote and preserve the trust and privilege inherent in my relationship with all members of the school community.
10. I maintain and build on the community's trust and confidence in Catholic schools and the Church.
11. I act reflectively and ethically.
12. I allow students to have a voice in their education, safety and well-being.
