

St Helena's Catholic Primary School School Involvement/Community Participation

St Helena's Catholic Primary School is a faith based learning community whose prime religious purpose is to have children come to know God, understand themselves and the Catholic faith and take part in the life of the school and community.

As a school community we highly value the involvement and participation of parents & caregivers within the life of the school. As such, we ask you to select from the activities below, those you would like to be involved in while your child/ren are at this school. This information will be kept on file and you will be contacted by a staff member or a member of the Parents and Friends Association when assistance is required.
